

As a lifelong Indiana resident I completely support Indiana's no call list just as it is. Myself and my family were constantly bothered by unsolicited sales calls for products and services we cared nothing about. Since we were added to the no call list our evenings have far more peaceful and enjoyable. We truly hope the FCC will leave Indiana's no call list just as it is.